Dear Bill:

This firm is providing a 3-day Prosecutorial Seminar for Ohio Prosecuting Attorneys on September 17th, 18th and 19th in Columbus, Ohio. This firm is providing the workshop on behalf of the Ohio Prosecuting Attorneys Association.

I am writing to invite you to attend the Friday luncheon as my guest and to give a short presentation to the group following lunch. I would be extremely delighted and honored to have your presence at the luncheon on Friday the 18th.

Please advise if this can be facilitated. I remain,

Very truly yours,

Bier

TO THE DIRECTOR:

Regarding the call this morning from Mr. [] of former Attorney General Saxbe's office wherein a meeting with Mr. Saxbe on August 20 in Columbus, was mentioned we have learned the following:

Mr. [] and Mr. Saxbe have apparently been advised of your upcoming visit to Columbus on August 20 and wanted to have a short meeting with you to persuade you to accept an invitation to address a seminar for Ohio prosecuting attorneys on Friday, September 18. A copy of that invitation is attached.

b6

[] of my staff informed Mr. [] that you are arriving in Columbus mid-afternoon on the 20th and would be on a very tight schedule until your departure the next morning. [] requested, on Mr. Saxbe's behalf, a few minutes of your time between your other commitments, if such time is available. [] told him that this was highly improbable but we would check with you and let them know one way or the other. I don't foresee a convenient time unless it is after the evening program.

Regarding the September 18 seminar, your schedule appears open, however, you have made a number of recent visits to Ohio, including Columbus. This is primarily a state prosecutors group and I see no reason that another trip to Columbus should be necessary at this time. [] told Mr. [] that a decision had not as yet been made regarding that invitation.

For the above reasons, I recommend regrets on both August 20 and September 18. If you agree, we'll handle the necessary responses. B. []

Dear Bill: SAYBE

Thanks so much for the invitation to participate in your seminar program on September 18. I had hoped that we could discuss it when I was in Columbus two weeks ago. Unfortunately, a tight schedule prevented that. I'm sure you understand.

As [redacted] of my staff told [redacted] on September 2, I'm unable to accept due to several prior commitments here in Washington. I appreciate your thinking of me and I'm sorry I can't be with you.

Warm regards,

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster

Dear Mr. Webster:

Transmitted herewith is a copy of a letter, the original
of which has already been mailed to you.

May I add my invitation to that of Bill Saxbe. The Workshop would be held in the District I represent.

If the Ohio Prosecutorial Workshop could be worked into your schedule, I am sure it would provide an excellent forum for advancing the views of the Reagan Administration.

Dear Congressman Wylie:

Your letter of August 17 has been received and I regret that I will be unable to address the Prosecutorial Seminar on September 18, 1981. My schedule of prior commitments will not permit me to attend. Mr. Saxbe, Chairman of the Board of the sponsoring organization, has been advised by letter dated September 8.

I appreciate your taking the time to suggest that I attend this seminar.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster
